

UNDERSTANDING PUBLIC FUNDING WORKSHOP

Workshop participants will learn about Medicaid programs designed to provide children with disabilities access to important health care benefits and services.

- ✚ Medicaid what it is and who it is for
- ✚ EPSDT—what it stands for and why it’s important
- ✚ Pathways to obtaining Medicaid eligibility based on a child’s illness or disability
 - Medicaid Home and Community Based Waivers (ODJFS and ODDD)
 - ODJFS Children’s Buy In
 - ODJFS Worker Buy In
 - SSI
 - SSDI
- ✚ Guidelines for grievances and appeals

Speaker Franklin J. Hickman, JD, Hickman and Lowder Co., LPA

Date Wednesday, June 16, 2010

Check in: 6:15-6:30 pm

Time: 6:30-8:30 pm

Location: Cuyahoga Valley Career Center, 8001 Brecksville Road, Brecksville

Cost: $10.00

Advance Registration is Required: Please call Linda Kresnye at 216-229-5757, Ext. 126

Tools for Today and Tomorrow workshops are designed for parents and caregivers. Professionals are also welcome to attend. Information provided is for educational purposes only and is not intended to provide professional advice or guidance for individual issues. For individual issues, consult with a qualified professional of your choice.